PRESS RELEASE

Wednesday, April 18, 2018

Carver County Attorney Mark Metz will announce his charging decision on Thursday, April 19, 2018, whether any person(s) will be charged following the investigation concerning the death of Prince Rogers Nelson.

The press conference will take place at the Emergency Operations Conference Room in the lower level of the Carver County Justice Center, located at 604 East Fourth Street, Chaska, Minnesota. The press conference will start promptly at 11:30 a.m. on April 19. Because of mandatory weapons screening at the Carver County Justice Center entry point, please allow enough time.

County Attorney Metz will articulate the legal status of these matters but County Attorney Metz will not take media questions following the announcement.
