AGENCY: CARVER COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE
SHERIFF: JASON KAMERUD (602TsF)
CLASSIFICATION: SHERIFF'S RECOGNITION
LOCATION: CARVER COUNTY
TELEPHONE: 952-361-1212

Carver County Sheriff Jason Kamerud extends congratulations to Reserve Captain Tom Steers for being recognized by the Minnesota Sheriff's Association as the 2019 Volunteer of the Year. Reserve Captain Steers was formally recognized at the Sheriff's Association conference on December 9th, 2019. Since 2016, Captain Steers has been a valuable asset to communities within Carver County, the Carver County Sheriff's Office and Sheriff's Reserve unit; having volunteered over 1,126 hours to further the mission of the Sheriff's Office.

Captain Steers participates in many events throughout Carver County; volunteering at events like the Carver County fair, city events, training assistance with licensed and non-licensed deputies, and working patrol on weekends in the Reserve squad. Captain Steers possesses a positive attitude, willingness to serve and always has a friendly smile! He consistently volunteers his time and continues to make a positive impact throughout our organization.

Captain Steers is a proud Carver County citizen and we are grateful for his contributions to our organization. If you'd like more information about the Carver County Reserves program, please contact Sergeant Chris Nelson 952-361-1839.
