Park System Overview/Orientation:

Commissioner Lynch drew comparison to visitor use numbers in the Regional Parks and the overall State population. Manders inquired about visitors entering Lake Minnewashta Regional Park via the new section of trail, in regards to “free entry to the Park.” Staff informed the commission that visitors who enter by trail will be accounted for through the trail counts that are conducted. Moja raised question about the Lake Waconia Event Center at Lake Waconia Regional Park. Walsh responded with explanation of the relationship between Lancer Catering and the County. Ives and Staff discuss land acquisition and development at Lake Waconia Regional Park, particularly the “paul’s parcel.” No further questions or comments.

Preparation for Possible 2013 Bonding Bill:

Staff reported on the potential for a bonding 2013 bonding session at the legislature. Walsh presented possible projects that might be considered if a bonding bill is proposed. Staff explain what projects might be considered, including essential criteria such that “must be a Regional Parks or Trails or in the master plan.” Staff reported the County is indicating a 75% return for land acquisition from such bonding possibilities and 25% to be used for beginning stages of visitor center/community room update project at Baylor Regional Park and development of by-pass lane and continued paving at Lake Minnewashta Regional Park. Karki inquired about ideas regarding Lake Minnewashta gate house and by-pass lane. Staff informed the Commission that visitor safety and convenience is becoming an issue, with traffic congestion entering the Park, as well as other’s traveling on TH 41 outside the park entrance.

Trails Policy:

Walsh indicates that policy and plan is unlikely to take shape at this meeting, yet looking to Commission as sounding board. Detailed explanations of trail categorization are given of destination trails and linking trails. Walsh provides example of County trail map and City trail maps within the County. Typical funding mechanisms for each trail type are described by Staff. Moja questions State-wide funding and the similarities and differences across the State. Staff explains differences in funding, indicating unlikely changes in current funding State-wide. Commission members raise question regarding linking trails in County right-of-way and see need to develop finance plans. Staff shared the work to compare to other similar agencies, regarding such trail policies. Examples shared, Three Rivers Parks District handles trail policies on a case-by-case basis, other counties do not have written policy. Commission questions how trails would be identified that might serve multiple purposes over time. Commission also voices question in terms of consistent “treatment” for the various agencies across the County. Commission member Manders see’s value in case-by-case approach, but points out efficiency and productivity advantages if a policy was created and used. Karki shares the Public desire to access trail systems from their residence. Moja suggests funding percentage to be determined by trail type, and relates to other projects where City and County are involved. Also indicates a concern of harsh criticism if case-by-case approach was used. County Commissioner Lynch indicates the County would prefer a percentage model, with hard numbers attributed to each party, along with a set of guidelines. Commission discusses the idea of County funding trail construction, City funding maintenance needs. The Commission also discusses who and what trails are defined across the County. Conversation is concluded by Commission, directing Staff to stick with Comprehensive Plan at this time, work to provide more details in the future.

Recommendation:

Staff recommend Trails Policy be constructed so as to be consistent with other communities in the County.

Staff indicated further discussion will need take place further down the road, and a presentation to County Board likely to happen at some point. No further questions or comments by Park Commission.
